

Patrick Alyward, President & CEO

Patrick Alyward serves as President and CEO of RIC and has 30+ years' experience within the fiduciary & wealth management compliance industry. Patrick served in critical leadership roles in wealth management/banking overseeing many fiduciary functions. He was Chief Fiduciary Officer (Executive Vice President) at PNC/ National City for 14 years where he managed all fiduciary functions for a top 10 bank. He was also with CCH (a Wolters Kluwer division) for 6 years where he founded and led a fiduciary tax reporting solution for banks and trust companies. Patrick is a frequent speaker and author on fiduciary compliance topics.

Credentials & Licenses

- MBA, Pepperdine University, Business Strategy and Finance
- BA, Economics, University of Rhode Island; Minor in Accounting
- Chairman of Trust Education Foundation and Executive Board Member since 2004