

CHRIS D. HALL, CRE Managing Partner

Chris joined Haddow & Company in May 2002. He has worked on a wide variety of real estate assignments, ranging from feasibility and highest and best use studies to the marketing and disposition of land and investment properties. Prior to Haddow & Company, he worked as an urban planner for an architectural firm and the City of Nashville, Tennessee.

Chris is a graduate of Kenyon College and earned master's degrees in city planning and real estate from the University of Texas at Austin and Georgia State University, respectively. Chris is a licensed real estate broker in Georgia, as well as a member of the Urban Land Institute and Counselors of Real Estate. He has published articles in the Atlanta Business Chronicle, served as a speaker and panelist at various real estate events, and is a part-time instructor in the Department of Real Estate at Georgia State University.
