

Robert George

Robert George began his career in title, appraisal, and settlement vendor management in 2002 at Pittsburgh based National Real Estate Information Services. While at NREIS, Robert built a realtor network to service the ever-growing Broker Price Opinion (BPO) needs of its customer base and along with Bryan, helped plan, develop, test and deploy their first BPO platform in 2003. Robert joined the executive team at Field Asset Services in 2007 where he lead and supporting all facets of the business: Vendor Management, Ongoing Maintenance, Quality Control, Customer Operations, and Sales. In 2016, Robert held the role of Interim Managing Director of Field Asset Services while also fulfilling his role as VP of Business Development for Valuations and Field Services.